STAY

Hansar Samui offers luxurious and spacious beachfront accommodation with unobstructed sea views from every room, super-size private balconies and oversize daybeds for outdoor living and entertaining. Open yet intimate, each room has been artfully finished with teak floors, stone bathroom fittings and local textiles to provide a sense of place. Chic custom furnishings, large flat screen TVs balance the design's natural touches with a modern flair. Walk-in rain showers and free-standing tubs are additional highlights of the Hansar Samui room experience.

TASTE

THE CHILL LOUNGE

Overlooking picturesque Bophut Bay, the elevated Chill Lounge offers a chic and trendy living space at the heart of the resort. Guests will surely appreciate the carefully handpicked international wine list and innovative cocktail menu as they reflect over stunning sunsets, or just enjoy a drink by the bar or lounge on the balcony daybeds.

H BISTRO

Strongly focused on providing cuisine of the highest level, the resort's signature dining experience, H Bistro, features a fresh French Mediterranean menu and exclusive wine list. Enjoy true Mediterranean spices merged together with ingredients ranging from fresh imported Maine lobster and oysters from Canada, Japan, and France. Welcoming guests from all over Koh Samui, H Bistro's indoor and outdoor dining spaces are yours to rule from sunrise until late at night.

BEACH & POOL BAR

Enjoy beverages, snacks, delicious homemade ice cream and freshly blended fruit drinks poolside on our cushioned sun beds. This venue is especially popular for happy hour as day turns to dusk.

CHEF

Overseeing the culinary team at Hansar Samui is executive chef Stephen Jean Dion. Born and raised in Montreal, Canada, Chef Stephen began his culinary career as an 18-year-old apprentice, at the famed restaurant Les Halles in Quebec under the leadership of Dominic Crovosier.

During his tenure in Bangkok, Chef Stephen has held posts at Ma Maison Restaurant, the Hilton Nai Lert Park and The Dome at the State Tower.

A unique opportunity to be the private chef to His Majesty the King of Jordan became a turning point in Chef Stephen's career, and he spent two years

FEEL

The LUXSA Spa sets the mood for total relaxation, offering a tranquil sanctuary that welcomes and embraces each guest. Interiors are finished in warm woods, organic materials and textures that enhance the natural herbs and extracts used in treatments, known for their soothing and relaxing properties. Treatments cater to those who seek to naturally regain an internal balance of mind, body and soul.

LUXSA Spa also provides a light and healthy menu, with a focus on fresh, organic ingredients to complement all treatments.

Meanwhile, an exclusive Master-in-Residence programme at LUXSA Spa invites therapeutic experts to instruct or train guests on particular lifestyle enhancing fields, including yoga, photography, art, meditation, Tai chi, Eastern healing wisdoms and spiritual teachings.

PLAY

Hansar Samui offers a range of activities both in the resort and around the island. Guests can relax in the 15 x 30 metre saltwater infinity edge saltwater pool, which is just a few steps from the beach, or chill out on the beachfront sun lounges. A modern fitness centre and 24-hour lobby library with free internet access is also available. Meanwhile, the friendly resort team can arrange a variety of activities around the island, including golf, yachting, diving and sightseeing.

MEET

Hansar Samui's 127-square metre Azure event space offers a stylish meeting facility with access to full business centre services. It is the ideal venue for a private function or small-to-medium sized meeting of up to 90 people. The venue also provides a full range of audio-visual meeting equipment, including notebook, laser jet printer, DVD player, photocopy machine and LCD projector.
