

Hansar Pranburi Resort

THAILAND

On a 900-metre stretch of one of Thailand's last undiscovered beaches – in the mostly undiscovered seaside town of Pranburi – Hansar Pranburi Resort commands an enviable location.

Located just 45 minutes south of popular destination Hua Hin and within a three-hour drive of Thailand's capital, Bangkok city, this secluded property provides the perfect mix of luxury, natural beauty and adventure.

Sunrise walks on a deserted beach, local seafood prepared the same day it was caught and panoramic views of the Gulf of Thailand – as well as the storied Nam Sao islands – are just a few of the unlimited memories to be made. And all of this within a morning's drive from capital city Bangkok.

This exquisite location is set among the hills of the Sam Roi Yot National Park, overlooking the Gulf of Thailand and protected by the Nom Sao Islands, which are part of local folklore.

An enchanting nine rooms makes up the main property, with an additional eight rooms spread through four two-storey duplexes. The top floor of the villa houses the Honeymoon Suite, with outdoor whirlpool bath and sea view. The contemporary design integrates with the beach surrounding and is complemented by the beachfront 25-metre infinity-edge pool. The interior decor is modern Thai, with the residential feel of a private villa – comfortable and relaxing.

Life revolves around the communal covered terrace where meals and drinks are served. The Monkey Bar, with its semi-open kitchen, faces onto the terrace. The Bay Restaurant has a sustainable menu with daily specials driven by the local fishermen's fresh catch of the day. Thailand's finest and sweetest pineapples are grown within walking distance of the property and feature in menus.

Guests are offered a variety of outdoor and nature-driven activities to allow them to enjoy this quiet, relaxed environment to the fullest. The most popular guest activities include a private boat tour with a local fisherman to view neighbouring islands, monkeys and dolphins.

Adventure-seekers will enjoy taking a short boat ride to the Sam Roi Yot National Park to visit the breathtaking Phraya Nakhon Cave, accessible by following a 20-minute hike.

Hansar Bangkok Hotel

THAILAND

Meaning 'to be in the moment of full joy and happiness', Hansar takes its inspiration from Thai culture.

At Hansar Bangkok, the driving design concept utilises the highest quality materials – sourced locally whenever possible – with most of the furniture, lighting and artworks custom-designed and crafted by local artisans.

In the heart of downtown Bangkok, Hansar is perfectly positioned to connect guests with the bustling city – three minutes sufficient to reach Siam Square and the commercial and business heart of this buzzing, exciting city.

A mere 10-minute ride from the hotel, the Chao Phraya River weaves its way through ancient temples and the golden spires of the Grand Palace.

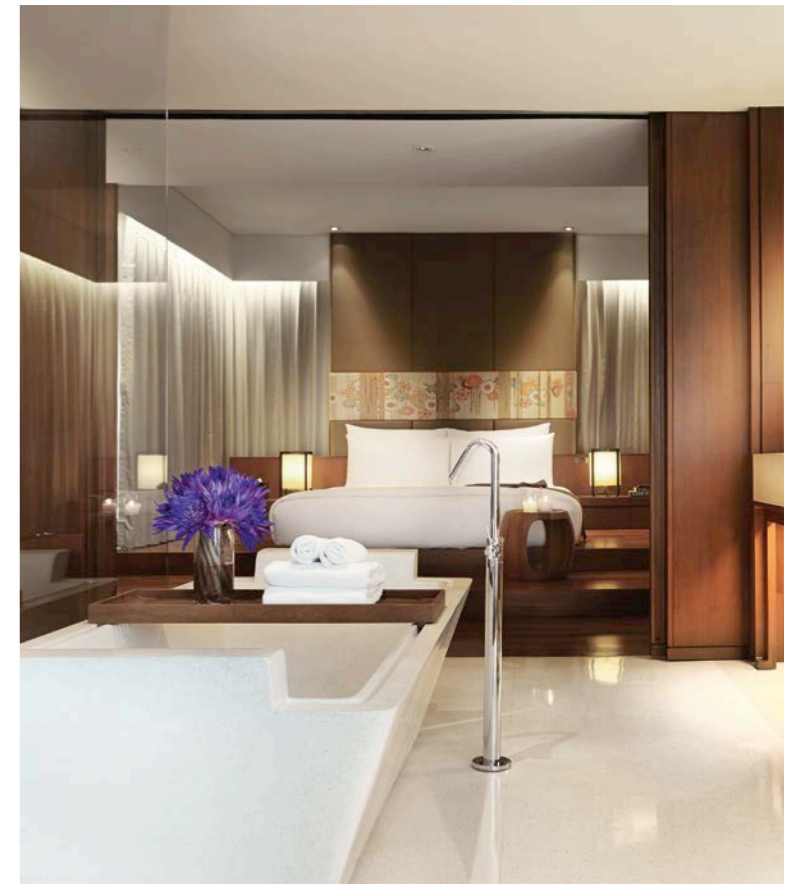

The award-winning Luxsa Spa focuses on rejuvenation via the four elements: earth, air, water and fire, while a variety of restaurant options provide guests with a relaxed environment in which to wine, dine and entertain.

Hansar Samui Resort

THAILAND

Hansar Samui is a 10-minute drive from Ko Samui International airport, along one of the island's most desirable and up-market beaches on Bophut Bay. A leisurely stroll down the cobblestone street adjacent to the resort is the Fisherman's Village, with its antique wooden shop fronts, chic cafes and atmospheric seaside bars.

Hansar Samui offers spacious luxury, beachfront accommodation with sea views from every room and huge private balconies. Open-plan yet intimate, each room is finished with teak wood floors, terrazzo bathrooms and local textiles.

Resort facilities include the award-winning Luxsa Spa and H Bistro for Koh Samui's finest dining. Overseeing the culinary team at Hansar Samui is executive chef Stephen Jean Dion, a former private chef to the King of Jordan. Stephen has cooked for many other high-profile dignitaries and royalty, including the Sultan of Brunei and Prince Charles.
